APPEAL FROM THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK IN 2004 CIV. 0397
HONORABLE GEORGE B. DANIELS

DECLARATION OF DAVID C. RUSSELL

---

David C. Russell hereby declares as follows:

1. I am associated with the firm of Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, counsel for Plaintiffs in Sokolow v. PLO. I make this declaration to place certain facts before the Court.
2. I understand from published court decisions and the record in this case that the PLO and PA maintained an office in Washington, D.C. for many years.

3. According to Item 11 of Defendants’ most recent FARA report, one service that Defendants’ Washington, D.C. office provided was “Consular Services, such as Power of Attorney documents, Birth and Death certificates, and other forms.” A copy of this FARA report, filed with the Department of Justice on October 9, 2018, is attached as Ex. A.

4. This report indicates that the Department of State ordered Defendants’ Washington, D.C. office to be closed on October 10, 2018. Ex. A, Item 7.

5. In an October 11, 2018 radio interview, Hakam Takash, an employee in Defendants’ Washington, D.C. office, described the consular services that the office provided, stating that they included services certifying documents for use in Palestinian legal proceedings. A transcription of that portion of the interview is attached as Ex. B.

6. According to an article published in the Arabic-language newspaper Al-Quds, when the D.C. office closed, the office announced on behalf of the PA’s Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Expatriates that “the government of the State of Palestine will unequivocally honor its promises to its citizens living in the United States . . . and has stressed that it would find alternate ways of continuing to provide consular services, and guarantee the continued provision of services to citizens.” A copy of the Al-Quds article, dated November 10, 2018, is attached as Ex. C.

7. Before the Washington, D.C. office closed, Defendants advertised on their “PLODelegation.org” website that the office provided consular services. A copy of the internet archive of the “consular affairs” section of the website “plodelegation.org” from September 10, 2018 is attached as Ex. D. That section listed a number of notaries as part of its consular-service offerings, among them Ahmad Alahmad, Samir Farhat, and Awni Abu Hdba. Id. In February 2019, I placed calls to these individuals.

8. I spoke with Mr. Alahmad on February 25 and asked him whether he was licensed to certify documents for use in Palestine. He said that he was. I then asked him whether he was willing to certify my certificate of admission from the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (“admission certificate”) for use in Palestine. In response, he asked me to email him my admission certificate before he could give me an answer, which I did. Later in the day, he called me and left me a voicemail saying that he had referred my request to a person in Washington, D.C., who would contact me about certifying my admission certificate.

9. On February 27, 2019, Mr. Alahmad emailed me telling me to call him. When I called him back, he told me that his contact in Washington, D.C. was now unable to certify my admission certificate and that he would certify it instead.

Specifically, he told me that he would mail the admission certificate to either Canada or Mexico for certification.

10. I also spoke with Mr. Farhat on February 25 and asked him whether he was licensed to certify documents for use in Palestine. He said that he was. He then gave me the name of a person who I should contact in Paterson, New Jersey—Mr. Abu Hdba.

11. I spoke with Mr. Abu Hdba on February 26 and asked him whether he was licensed to certify documents for use in Palestine. He said that he was. I then asked him whether he was willing to certify my admission certificate for use in Palestine. In response, he asked me to email him my admission certificate, which he wanted to look at before giving me an answer. I then emailed him my admission certificate to the email address that he gave me.

12. Mr. Abu Hdba called me back later in the day and told me that he would provide the necessary certifications for my admission certificate. Specifically, he told me that he would send the admission certificate to Canada for certification.

13. Mr. Abu Hdba then gave me an address in New Jersey to mail my admission certificate to. He also told me to include a $300 money order—the fee for certifying the admission certificate.

14. I mailed Mr. Abu Hdba my admission certificate on February 26, 2019 to the address in New Jersey that he gave me, along with a $300 money order. On February 27, 2019, FedEx delivered the admission certificate to that address. A copy of the proof of delivery is attached as Ex. E.

15. On March 11, 2019 I received my stamped admission certificate from Mr. Abu Hdba. A copy of the stamped admission certificate, along with the envelope that it came in indicating that it was mailed to me from New Jersey, is attached as Ex. F.

16. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: New York, New York

If yes, have you filed an amendment to these exhibits? Yes ☐ No ☒

If no, please attach the required amendment.

<sup>2</sup> The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in Section 1(b) of the Act, an individual organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a) (9)). A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

<sup>4</sup> The Exhibit B, which is filed on Form NSD-4, sets forth the information concerning the agreement or understanding between the registrant and the foreign principal.

III - ACTIVITIES

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 7, 8, or 9 of this statement? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

The General Delegation of the PLO acts as the official representative office of the PLO in the United States. The office assists Palestinians in the US with Consular Services, such as Power of Attorney documents, Birth and Death certificates, and other forms. The office also coordinates events for the community, pursues Public Diplomacy in the US, and interacts with members of the US Government, NGOs, and civil society to inform and educate on Palestinian issues.

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity<sup>5</sup> as defined below? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

Please see attached schedule 1

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits your foreign principal(s)? Yes ☐ No ☒

If yes, describe fully.

<sup>5</sup> "Political activity," as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act, means any activity that the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

Letters and Politics: 10.11.18 - 10:00 AM

7:50 to 13:00:

Hakam Takash: Um, but a large part of our work was what I did, the consular work. So, you know, there was, there was phone calls between the White House and the ambassador every time the delegation, the Palestinian delegation would come to the U.S., you know, our ambassador would accompany them to the meetings and so on. But I've been there for 18 years doing the, sort of, the, you know, what many people view as the secondary work, which is the consular work. But after they closed down the office, it seems to me, that the thing that'll be missed the most is really my work. Um, the contact between officials, I think can carry on without an embassy but actual people on the ground that need services, and we're talking here services from every walk of life. I mean, we're handling about half a million Palestinians in the U.S. I process around 3,600 applications a year, um, and-

Mitch Jeserich: Applications for what?

Hakam Takash: For everything you can imagine. From, you know, Exxon Mobil trying to protect their copyrights in the West Bank, to folks coming over to the U.S. with kids that need their birth certificates certified so they can use them in American elementary schools, so on. It's every walk of life. Basically, paperwork that's produced in the U.S. that needs to be used in Palestine comes to my office and paperwork that's produced in Palestine that needs to be used in America comes through my office as well. So you really see humanity walk in and out of the door. You see the sort of processes of life. Um, it's a different perspective, it gives me a different perspective on conflict and it gives me a different perspective on people.

Mitch Jeserich: So Hakam, tell me who you end up providing services for, and I want to get to businesses in a moment because that's important, businesses, uh, that do business, uh, in Palestine. But for people as well, do you, is it Palestinians who are in the United States that you provide services for? Is it Palestinian Americans who also have citizenship here, uh, in the United States? Tell me about exactly who's gonna be affected by this.

Hakam Takash: So, I think it's about, maybe 70% of the work I do is for Palestinian Americans. Maybe 30% of it is for Palestinians without American citizenship. But then, I'll also remind you, that a lot of the people that call me aren't even Palestinian Americans. They're, you know, the spouses of a Palestinian American, they're the children of a Palestinian American, they're friends and loved ones of it, so, as long as there's Palestinians in the U.S. they'll have a network of relationships that sometimes they'll have to call the Palestinian office for.

Mitch Jeserich: And now that that just doesn't exist, if somebody, could you basically, I mean it was a consulate basically, but I guess it wasn't officially a consulate.

Hakam Takash: Um, yes, it-

Mitch Jeserich: Or was it?

Hakam Takash: We had all the responsibilities of a consulate but we were never allowed the, let's say the privileges of a consulate. So for example, a real consulate would have a diplomatic pouch that we could use to send say passports for renewal, or, you know, classified documents, court documents, and so on to Palestine, we did not have that privilege. But, we were always expected, by the U.S. government, mind you, to do these, you know, to offer, to provide these services. And, I always like to tell people that, it was my stamp that, the stamp from this PLO consulate, was recognized by all the parties involved in the conflict. So, the U.S. government would ask people to go to my office to get something certified. Obviously, the Palestinian Authority would ask people to get stuff certified from my office. But then, Hamas in Gaza would ask people to come to my office and get certified, and so would the Israelis, sometimes. They would ask people to go to the Washington office and get things certified. Um, so all the parties involved in this wanted Hakam to actually process, they believed in my stamp, they said if this is signed by the office of the PLO in Washington, we will recognize this as a true and original document.

Mitch Jeserich: And certified, I mean, what would people have to get certified? I know you said all kinds of things that people need certification for, are we talking about travel, are we talking about, and what are we talking about?

Hakam Takash: I mean, in the simplest form, I'm here because I understand the legal system in both places. So, if there's, you know, a divorce document in the U.S., if you were to send it directly to Palestine, the Palestinian legal system would look at it and say, "I don't know what this document is, I don't know if it's legal or not, I need somebody on the ground over there to tell me that this divorce decree is correct." And so, I would come in and certify that this is true and correct. And then vice versa. So, the U.S. government would say "I don't know if these Palestinian documents are real or if this person is making them up, go to your embassy and have them certify that this is a true Palestinian document." And so they'd bring it to me. So, I mean, it's such a large bag of things that come through my office, it's really hard to count them all, and how much time do you have?

Mitch Jeserich: We have about 15 more minutes.

PLO's General Delegation to the United State to Close its Doors

Nov. 10, 2018 | 08:16 AM

Said Erekat

Washington D.C. - www.alquds.com.

The Palestine Liberation Organization has closed the offices of its mission to the US capitol in Washington D.C. A large crowd comprised of representatives of Palestinian-American organizations and organizations that identify with the Palestinian cause, including a number of progressive Jewish-American organizations, as wells as dozens of journalists, gathered outside of the building in Washington D.C.'s Georgetown neighborhood, expressing their feelings of solidarity with the Palestinian struggle for freedom, the end to occupation, and the right of return.

The mission made an announcement in front of the demonstrators and the media, stating on behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Expatriates that the diplomatic staff of the PLO's General Delegation to the United States "had completed all of their duties in the United States, as part of a step taken following an antagonistic and arbitrary decision made by the American administration to close the Palestine Liberation Organization's General Delegation, which means cutting off the diplomatic and political relations between the governments of the two countries".

The announcement added that "the ministry has stated that the government of the State of Palestine will unequivocally honor its promises to its citizens living in the United States by taking all necessary steps to prevent this decision from affecting or impeding their interests, and has stressed that it would find alternate ways of continuing to provide consular services, and guarantee the continued provision of services to citizens and the safeguarding of their interests." It stressed that diplomatic relations based on mutual respect are the cornerstone of dialog and cooperation between nations and peoples, and this has been the international custom in practice for hundreds of years.

The announcement mentioned that ineffective, antagonistic and aggressive policies and actions of the current U.S. administration, which are based on dictating and imposing negotiations instead of cooperation, are what the American administration had done, and this prevents it from playing any role in the political process that we eagerly await in order to achieve justice and a lasting peace, in accordance with international law, because the American administration cannot continue acting as an intermediary when its actions reflect injustice and aggression."

The announcement concluded with the following statement: "The harmful American policies will not overshadow the strong bonds between the Palestinian people and those who defend peace and cooperation in the United States. We will continue working tirelessly to deepen the ties between the two nations with a common commitment to the values of freedom and dignity for all nations. The Palestinian people holds the generous and benevolent American people in high regard, a people who has continuously supported our people's just struggle to preserve its dignity, oppose a discriminative and racist regime, and fight to take back its liberty from the clutches of a foreign and colonial occupation."

In turn, Robert Palladino, the spokesperson for the U.S. State Department, later responded to a question he was asked by Al-Quds, regarding whether his government wishes to reopen the Palestinian office and restart the diplomatic exchange with the Palestinians.

He said that his government "has not seen anything that would change its position since deciding to close the office on the 10th of September, 2018, giving the mission 30 days to vacate the building".

Those who came to express their solidarity with the Palestinian cause were overtaken by emotion as Hakam Takash, the Palestinian consul, removed the plaque that reads "the General Delegation of the Palestine Liberation Organization to the United States", which stated the identity of the mission, from the facade of the building. Playing in the background was the song "I will hold with my back held straight", composed by the musician Marcel Khalife, with lyrics by the late Palestinian poet Samih al-Qasem.

As the mission closed, the Palestinian flag continuing fluttering above, and Riyadh al-Maliki, the minister of foreign affairs and expatriates, exclaimed: "Although the office will no longer serve as the headquarters for the Palestinian mission, after it is closed and its contents emptied, all we will do is remove the plaque from the entranceway, which stated that the office of the mission of the Palestine Liberation Organization is here. However, the flag will remain where it is, considering that the building is private property, not government property, and the owner of the property may fly any flag he wishes, unless the government orders him to remove it. Palestinian arms shall never remove any Palestinian flag, those very arms that had toiled to raise the flag everywhere, something they had paid a price for."

The Palestinian flag was officially raised above the building housing the mission on the 19th of January, 2011.

The official spokeswoman for the U.S. State Department, Heather Nauert, had issued an announcement on the 10th of September 2018, regarding the closure of the General Delegation of the Palestine Liberation Organization in the American capital.

This announcement stated that "The Administration has determined after careful review that the office of the General Delegation of the Palestine Liberation Organization in Washington should close. We have permitted the Palestine Liberation Organization office to conduct operations that support the objective of achieving a lasting, comprehensive peace between the Israelis and the Palestinians since the expiration of a previous waiver in November 2017. However, the Palestine Liberation Organization has not taken steps to advance the start of direct and meaningful negotiations with Israel. To the contrary, the Palestine Liberation Organization leadership has condemned a U.S. peace plan they have not yet seen and refused to engage with the U.S. government with respect to peace efforts and otherwise. As such, and reflecting Congressional concerns, the Administration has decided that the Palestine Liberation Organization office in Washington will close at this point". In her announcement, Nauert shed light on the decision, saying: "This decision is also consistent with Administration and Congressional concerns with Palestinian attempts to prompt an investigation of Israel by the International Criminal Court."

Nauert told Al-Quds that "The United States continues to believe that direct negotiations between the two parties are the only way forward. This action should not be exploited by those who seek to act as spoilers (of the peace process) to distract from the imperative of reaching a peace agreement. We are not retreating from our efforts to achieve a lasting and comprehensive peace."

It should be noted that the Palestinian ambassador in Washington, D.C. was recalled by Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas on the 15th of May, 2018, in protest of the transfer of the U.S. embassy from Tel Aviv to occupied Jerusalem, and he has not returned to the U.S. capital since that time.

Palestinian-U.S. relations have noticeably soured since the 10th of September, 2018.

مفوضية منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية في واشنطن تغلق أبوابها

08:16 | 11-10-2018

إغلاق مكتب بعثة منظمة التحرير في واشنطن

واشنطن، - "القدس"، دعت كهـم - سعيد عـيقات - أغلقت منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية مكاتب بعثتها فـ، العاصمة الأمريكية واشنطن،

السياسات اليهودية، المسيحية، والحسنة، التي ينبغي أن تكون في جوهرها هي وحيثما، وبما، بكلمات تضامنية مع نضال الفلسطينيين من أجل الحرية وإنهاء الاحتلال وحقوق العودة.

وقالت البعثة في بيان لها أمام المتظاهرين والصحافة أن وزارة الخارجية والمغتربين الفلسطينية أن الموظفين الدبلوماسيين في المفوضية العامة لمنظمة التحرير الفلسطينية لدى الولايات المتحدة، "قد أنهوا كافة أعمالهم في الولايات المتحدة، في خطوة تأتي في أعقاب القرار العدائي والتعسفي للإدارة الأميركية والقاضي بإغلاق المفوضية العامة لمنظمة التحرير الفلسطينية، بما يعني قطع العلاقات الدبلوماسية والسياسية بين حكومتنا البلدين."

وأضاف البيان "كما وأكدت الوزارة أن حكومة دولة فلسطين ستحافظ على وعودها القاطعة لمواطنيها المقيمين في الولايات المتحدة باتخاذ كافة الإجراءات اللازمة كي لا تتعطل مصالحهم أو تتأثر بهذا القرار، وشددت أنها ستجد الطرق البديلة لمواصلة تقديم الخدمات القنصلية وضمان استمرار خدمة المواطن وحماية مصالحه" مشددة أن العلاقات الدبلوماسية القائمة على الاحترام المتبادل هي حجر الزاوية في الحوار والتعاون بين الأمم والشعوب، وهو الأمر المعمول به في الأعراف الدولية منذ مئات السنين. وأشارت إلى أن السياسات والأفعال الهجومية والعدائية، غير الناجمة للإدارة الأميركية الحالية، والقائمة على الامتلاءات وفرض التفاوض بدلا عن التعاون، هو ما يقصي الإدارة الأميركية ويبعدها عن أي دور في العملية السياسية، التي نتطلع إليها لتحقيق العدل والسلام الدائم تماشيا مع القوانين الدولية، إذ لا يمكن أن تستمر الإدارة الأميركية في لعب دور الوسيط في الوقت الذي تعكس أفعالها إجحافا وعدائية.

وفي الختام، أكد البيان أن "السياسات الأميركية الضارة لن تلقي بظلالها على العلاقات القوية بين الشعب الفلسطيني والمدافعين عن السلام والتعاون في الولايات المتحدة، وشددت أنها ستواصل العمل الدؤوب من أجل تعميق الروابط بين الشعبين مع الالتزام المشترك بقيم الحرية والكرامة لجميع الشعوب". "وأضافت أن الشعب الفلسطيني يقدر عاليا الشعب الأميركي الطيب والسخي بدعته المتواصل لنضال شعبنا المشروع في الحفاظ على الكرامة وانتزاع حريته من براثن الاحتلال الأجنبي الاستعماري ونظام التمييز العنصري".

بدوره قال روبرت باديللو، الناطق باسم وزارة الخارجية الأميركية ردا على سؤال وجهته له "القدس" عما إذا كانت حكومته ترغب في إعادة فتح المكتب الفلسطيني واستئناف التبادل الدبلوماسي مع الفلسطينيين؟

وقال "أن حكومته لم ترى ما يغير وجهة نظرها منذ اتخاذها قرار إقفال المكتب يوم 10 أيلول 2018 والذي منح البعثة مدة 30 يوما لإخلاء البناية".

وسيطرت العواطف الجياشة على الحاضرين المتضامنين مع القضية الفلسطينية عندما خلع القنصل الفلسطيني حكم طقش اللوحة التي تعرف "المفوضية العامة لمنظمة التحرير الفلسطينية" التي تشير إلى هوية البعثة من على الحائط الأمامي للعمارة على أنغام أغنية "منتصب القامة أمشي" للفنان مرسل خليفة وكلمات الشاعر الفلسطيني الراحل سميح القاسم.

وفيما أقفلت البعثة، ظل العلم الفلسطيني يرفرف عاليا حيث صرح وزير الخارجية والمغتربين رياض المالكي "رغم أن المكتب لم يعد رسميا مقرا لبعثة فلسطين، بعد أن تم إغلاقه وتفرغ محتوياته، فكل ما سنعمله هو خلع اللوحة على المدخل التي تشير أن هنا يقع مكتب بعثة منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية. أما العلم فيبقى حيث هو، على اعتبار أن العمارة هي ملك خاص، وليست ملك حكومي، ويستطيع صاحب الملك أن يرفع أي علم يريد، إلا إذا أخبرته الدولة على إنزاله" مؤكدا "إن السواعد الفلسطينية لن تنزل أي علم فلسطيني، تلك السواعد التي دأبت على رفعه في كل مكان ودفعت أثمنا لذلك".

وكانت الناطقة الرسمية باسم وزارة الخارجية الأميركية هيدز ناورت قد أصدرت بيانا يوم 10 أيلول 2018 أعلنت فيه إغلاق مكتب مفوضية منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية في العاصمة الأميركية.

وقال البيان المذكور "قد قررت الإدارة بعد مراجعة دقيقة أن يغلق مكتب البعثة العامة لمنظمة التحرير الفلسطينية في واشنطن. لقد سمحنا لمكتب منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية بالقيام بعمليات تدعم هدف تحقيق سلام دائم وشامل بين الإسرائيليين والفلسطينيين منذ انتهاء التنازل السابق في شهر تشرين الثاني 2017. ومع ذلك، لم تتخذ منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية الخطوات اللزمة لبدء تقدم مباشر. ومفاوضات هادفة مع إسرائيل". وأضاف بيان الوزارة "على العكس ، أدانت قيادة منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية خطة سلام أميركية لم ترها بعد ورفضت الدخراط مع الحكومة الأميركية فيما يتعلق بجهود السلام وغيرها. وعلى هذا الأساس، وتماشيا مع مخاوف الكونغرس ، قررت الإدارة أن مكتب منظمة التحرير الفلسطينية في واشنطن سيغلق في هذه المرحلة". وسلطت ناورت الضوء في بيانها على أنه "ينسجم هذا القرار أيضاً مع قلق الإدارة والكونجرس بشأن المحاولات الفلسطينية الرامية إلى إجراء تحقيق في إسرائيل من قبل المحكمة الجنائية الدولية".

وأكدت ناورت للقدس أنه "ما زالت الولايات المتحدة تعتقد أن المفاوضات المباشرة بين الطرفين هي الطريق الوحيد للتقدم، لا ينبغي استغلال هذا الإجراء من قبل أولئك الذين يسعون إلى العمل كمفسدين (لعملية السلام) ، لصرف الانتباه عن ضرورة التوصل إلى اتفاق سلام. إننا لا نتراجع (باتخاذ هذه الخطوة) عن جهودنا لتحقيق سلام دائم وشامل".

يجدر بالذكر أن السفير الفلسطيني في واشنطن كان قد استدعي من قبل الرئيس الفلسطيني محمود عباس يوم 15 أيار 2018 الماضي احتجاجاً على نقل السفارة الأميركية من تل أبيب إلى القدس المحتلة ، ولم يعد للعاصمة الأميركية منذ ذلك الوقت.
